

We object to the current legislation being proposed because it is too broad. We currently fax promotions to buying customers and feel it is wasteful to be required to have letters of approval from each individual firm. Firms who "broadcast" or purchase a list and send them as solicitations should be the target of any legislation.